RUTH LEE ANDERSON

"Success will crown her efforts."

English Club, '26; French Club, '29.

Ruth has a combination in her nature of a sweet disposition, a quick thinking brain and a staunch perseverance—all the qualities essential to success. And why shouldn't she be successful as long as there's need for French teachers?

"POODLE"

MILDRED ESTELLE BIDDLE

"So earnest in her work and fun,

We know not half the work she's done."

English Club, '26; Latin Club, '27; Dramatic Club, '28; Drama Guild, '29; Secretary for Girls Hi-Y Club, '29.

If any one hides her light under a bushel basket it is Mildred. One never would guess to hear her modest talk that she is one of our best and most dependable students. But best of all she has a sunny disposition and is a valuable friend. She should go far in any undertaking.

"MILDRED"

ANNIE BOYD

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

Civics Club, '26; English Club, '27; Pythagorean Club, '28; Glee Club, '28; Traveler Club, '29.

Well you all know, that's Annie. Take your troubles to her, she will say, "Keep it to yourself." She is a very capable girl and is willing to do all that she can when she is called upon by her class. She plays the piano well and everyone thinks that she'll probably be a great musician some day. And her voice, well, you should hear it. It makes you know how to appreciate real singing and playing to hear her.

"ANNIE"

SARAH AUGUSTA BRANDT

"A spirit kind and bright

With something of angelic light."

English Club, '26; Latin Club, '27; Basketball, '29; French Club, '29.

Who is that girl who throws such baskets in basketball? Who is that coming across the campus with tennis shoes across her shoulder? Who is that quiet girl over there? Oh! that's our star jump center—(and how she can jump!)

Good luck and best wishes to our

"SARAH"

EDITH ELIZABETH CARPENTER

"She's gentle, she is shy, but she has mischief in her eye."

English Club, '26; Latin Club, '27; Student Council, '27-'29; Reporter to Bruin, '28; Secretary National Honor Society, '29; Secretary French Club, '29; Assistant Manager of Cub, '29.

Edith is "sorta" quiet, but like all still waters she runs deep. She is a lovely combination of good looks and brains, together with neatness, studiousness, friendliness and willingness to join you in anything that's going on. This makes her one of the most lovable members of the class of '29.

"SNOOKS"

JAMES LANDRETH CASON, JR.

*"Laugh and be merry;
Better the world with a song."*

English Club, '26; Science Club, '27; Football, '28; Hi-Y Club, '29; Football, '29; "Am I Intruding?", '29.

Jimmy is always ready to help a friend or do a favor for anyone. He is thoughtful, straightforward, honest, accommodating, and sincere. The class of '29 won't forget

"JIMMY"

ANN BROCK CHURCH

"Variety is the spice of life."

English Club, '26; Latin Club, '27; "Mousetrap", '27; Student Council, '26, '28; Secretary of Dramatic Club, '28; "A Pair of Lunatics", '28; Marshal, '28; Drama Guild, '29; Basketball, '27, '28, '29; "Help Yourself", '29; Subscription Manager for Bruin, '29.

Ann was voted "best all 'round" by the Seniors and well she might be, for who can surpass her combination of attractiveness, popularity and basket-ball ability? When there's any excitement in school we all know that Ann is back of it some way, and in History class when we hear a little groan we know she has just been asked another question about the location of the Carribean.

"ANN"

ELSIE WYMAN COOK

"To look at her you'd hardly think she was a cook."

Basketball, '26, '27, '28, '29; "The Mousetrap", '27; Cheer Leader, '28, '29; Dramatic Club, '28, '29; Marshal, '28; "Am I Intruding?", '29; "Help Yourself", '29.

Elsie is about the snappiest, sportiest female that ever struck New Bern High School. She is a real basket-ball hound and there's just bound to be excitement in any ole game she plays in. Add to her athletic ability, plenty of good looks and a magnetic personality then you'll know what we are trying to say.

"Cook"

THOMAS HOWARD DAVIS, JR.

"Rather be late than never."

Cub Football, '26; Basketball, '27; Baseball, '28, '29; Senior Literary Club, '29; Football, '29.

Tom is one of those quiet boys who are always willing to do something mischievous. He is popular with the girls and especially at the baseball games, he can be found sitting in the grandstand, side a most ardent rooter. Here's hoping you luck as a civil engineer and may you build a bridge across the Atlantic as your smallest accomplishment.

"TOM"

GRACE ISABELLE DEPPE

*"A tall blue-eyed blonde
Of whom we're all very fond."*

English Club, '26, '27; Literary Club, '29.

Grace has a genial, happy disposition. She's neither very quiet nor is she loud, just a happy medium. She hates debt but is fond of a "Bill." When there's fun to share you will find her always there. She takes what luck sends her and never worries. She is a fine typist and we all know she will make a successful stenographer. Here's to your success—

"GRACE"

ELIZABETH WOLFENDEN DUFFY

"I never trouble trouble till trouble troubles me."

English Club, '26; History Club, '27; Science Club, '27; Dramatic Club, '28; Assistant Marshal, '28; Drama Guild, '29.

"Lib" is one of the fairest members of our class as she is also one of the most popular. "Lib" takes things just as they come and "meets reverses with a song." Does "Lib" like to talk? Every one knows the answer. We know that you'll succeed because you have that pleasing personality called "It."

"LIB"

FRANCES BURTON FEREBEE

"A man of might—is a man of right."

Cub Football, '24, '25; Sub Football, '26; Sub Baseball, '26; Football, '27, '28, '29; Basketball, '27, '28, '29; Baseball, '27, '28, '29; Captain Football, '29; "Am I Intruding?", '29; Vice-President Class, '28; Student Council, '27; Debating Club, '29; Science Club, '28.

Imagine a team of any description without a Ferebee—especially Franeis. When Franeis, with his pep, enthusiasm, and splendid sportsmanship, steps out to meet a foe, we are pretty sure of victory. We regret that this season ends his athletic career in N. B. H., but we know he will soon be shining elsewhere.

"FRAN"

SARA JULIA FOSCUE

*"In height she is minus.
In quality she is plus.
Just as she is, suits us."*

English Club, '25, '26; Dramatic Club, '28, '29.

Julia is one of our little girls, but her knowledge is not to be compared with her size, for great minds in small bodies are oft found. She has a winsome personality and somewhere tucked away is a romantic tinge. Julia is a true friend in trouble as well as in fun, always ready for a good time. She is very serious at times, especially during tests. Loyalty, cheerfulness and pep makes her a lovable classmate.

"JULIE"

SADIE MAE GASKINS

*"Rare compound of quality, noble and true,
With plenty of sense and good humor, too."*

Student Council, '27; English Club, '27; Pythagorean Club, '28; French Club, '29.

The casual observer might call Sadie a very quiet, dignified girl, but to know her well is to change one's mind completely. Her friends know her to be full to the brim of life and fun. One would have to go far to find a truer and better friend than Sadie. All of us admire and respect her, and will always be glad to remember her as our classmate.

"SADIE"

HENRY LEN GIBBS

"Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow you may die."

Freshman Basketball, '26, '27; Football, '27; Forum, '27; Dramatic Club, '28; Drama Guild, '29; "Am I Intruding?", '29.

Life for Len was always a thing to be considered lightly. In fact he took such pains to enjoy his school life that it took us until his Senior year to find what a good actor he was, but once discovered, don't think he didn't shine in our Senior play! We're wishing him his long and merry life full of good luck, plenty of smiles and few hard knocks.

"LEN"

ROBERT WILLIAM GRAY

"Life is just one 'whoopie' after another."

Student Council, '28; Dramatic Club, '28, '29.

Robert is full of fun and glee. He is quite an asset to the commercial class; if he isn't cleaning the boards, he is making us laugh. Robert is quite the student. We feel sure that he will meet with success in the business world.

"ROBERT"

JAMES COLEMAN GUTHRIE

"Leave silence to the saints, I am but human."

"Help Yourself", '29; "Am I Intruding", '29; Dramatic Club, '28, '29; "Jazz and Minuet", '28; Football, '28; "Forum", '27.

"Jimmie" is one of our most popular boys and one of our best dancers, whoopee! A play is never complete without him, because of his poise and ability as an actor in any part. He is well liked by the class of '29. In whatever he undertakes during life's brief span, we wish him great success.

"JIMMIE"

RUBY LEE HALL

"She is one on whom one may safely depend."

English Club, '26; French Club, '29.

Ruby never hurries, but when she finishes anything you may be sure it is O. K. It is seldom that you see a girl with an even temper and sweet disposition like that with which Ruby is blessed. She is to be found in the front ranks of all her classes. We predict success for Ruby in whatever she undertakes.

"BEBE"

MILDRED BETTINA HAMILTON

"Dependable should have been her middle name."

English Club, '26; Latin Club, '27; Dramatic Club, '28; "Jazz and Minnet", '28; Drama Guild, '29; Triangular Debate, '29; Business Manager of the Cub, '29; Member of Judicial Committee, '29; Member of Girls Hi-Y, '29.

Mildred represents the "Heart's Desire" of him who wants a sweet, pretty little Miss. A girl who paints pictures and sews dresses equally as well, a girl who is a business manager without par, and a debater whose reasoning is logical and delivery forceful. All her classmates love the Mildred whom we can trust to make money for our plays, manage our annual, and best of all, to remain true to our friendships. That's

"MILDRED"

DURWARD WORTH HANCOCK

"He'll find a way."

The Forum, '27; Science Club, '28; Senior Literary Society, '29.

A jolly good pal, who always wears a smile—except when he's laughing. Durward is a good sport, and has added lots of life to our class. He believes you can get there just as quickly by taking your time. We shall miss him very much. The class of '29 wishes you success in whatever you undertake to do.

"DURWOOD"

NAOMI MARGARET HARDISON

*"The world's no better if we worry.
Life's no longer if we hurry."*

Chemistry Club, '27, '28.

One would have to go far to find a truer and better friend than Naomi. Being of a jolly and lovable nature she has won many friends in New Bern High. Although she has only been with us one year, she has been a welcome addition to the class of '29.

"NAOMI"

JOSEPH EARL HARPER

"Modest is a great virtue"

Our best wishes are with you, modest young man. Your qualities are right for success.

"EARL"

WILLIAM BERNARD HARRIS, JR.

"A bold, bad man." with the ladies.

Hi-Y, '26, '27; English Club, '26; Lee Class, '27; Forum, '27; Student Council, '27; Dramatic Club, '28; Drama Guild, '29.

Every time you see Bill you wonder who his latest is, but he always comes back to a certain curly-haired lady. He seems to have a way of saying the unexpected and sending the whole class, teachers included, into peals of laughter. One thing sure, everyone likes

"BILL"

FRANK HENDERSON

"Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow you may die."

Travelers Club, '29; Football, '29.

Frank is one of the real boys in the Senior Class. But with that innocent look of his, he got away with more things than many of us do. We do not know what his ambition is, but we are sure that with his determination he will succeed.

"FRANK"

ELIZABETH SARAH HERITAGE

"Talking, she knew not what, nor cared not why."
French Club, '29.

Elizabeth is never serious, and how can she be when she is the wittiest girl in the Senior class? She is determined to do what she wants to and if she says she'll try to do a thing she usually succeeds. When others grumble and complain, turn to Elizabeth with her "ever ready smile and words of cheer, as usually we see her laughing and enjoying life."

"LIZA"

MINNIE EVELYN HODGES

"To those who know thee not, no words can paint; and those who know thee, know all words are faint."

English Club, '26; Latin Club, '26; Bruin Reporter, '26; Marshal, '26; Student Council, '27; Assistant Editor Bruin, '28; Editor of Junior Edition, '28; Marshal, '28; Journalistic Club, '28; Glee Club, '28; "Jazz and Minuet", '28; State Dramatic Contest, '28; Student Council, '29; Secretary Judiciary Committee, '29; Dramatic Club, '29; "Am I Intruding", '29; President Honorary Society, '29; "Help Yourself", '29; President Hi-Y, '29.

After saying how faint any words are in describing Evelyn it seems foolish to try to tell what a peach of a girl she is, but as she is one of N. B. H. S.'s most renowned actresses, as she can "business manage" in a really business-like way, as she is as smart in school as she is good fun out, and as she is popular with teachers and pupils alike, why attempt to describe

"MIN"

MARY ELIZABETH HUGHES

"Not too serious, not too gay, just a good sport in every way."

Pythagorean Club, '28; French Club, '29.

Although Mary has not been with us all of our high school days, we find her one of our best students. Everybody likes her for she is always ready and waiting to help anybody. We know her by her cheerful smile and we are sure she will succeed in anything she attempts. Here's wishing great luck and much success to

"MARY"

HELEN FRANCES JACKSON

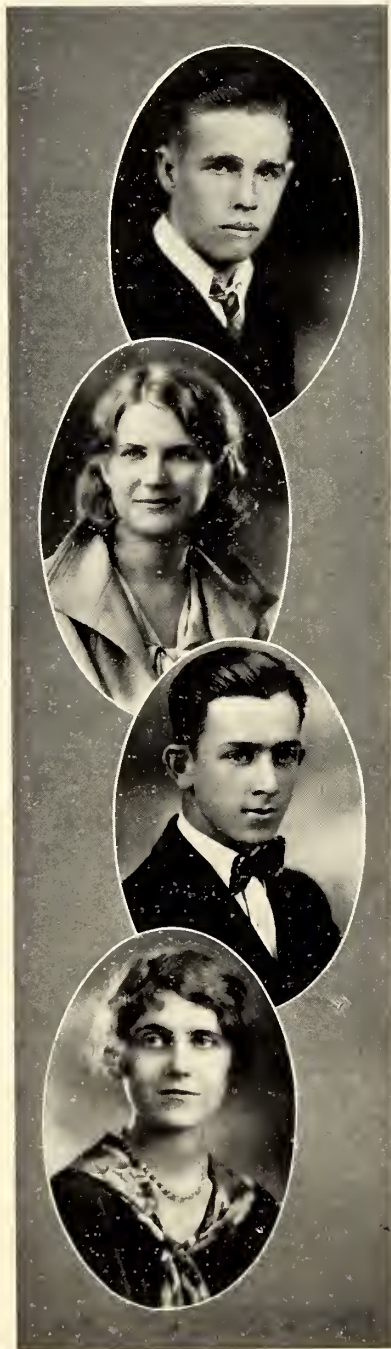

"God made her—then lost the pattern."

Student Council, '26; Basketball, '26, '27, '28; President Class, '27; "Mousetrap", '27; President Class, '28; Assistant Manager of Bruin, '28; Treasurer Class, '29; Candy Stand, '28, '29; Vice President of Hi-Y Club, '29; Dramatic Club Critic, '28; Drama Guild, '29; Latin Club, '27; Manager of Bruin, '29; Declamation, '26.

Here is a girl who is capable, true to a purpose in life, energetic and dependable. She is also a good sport, attractive, and popular. Whether its class activities, club programs, Hi-Y meetings, or a party with the 400, Helen holds her own. To say she is an all 'round good girl is putting it mild.

"HELEN"

ERNEST ROBERT JOHNSON

"He was gentle and the elements so mixed in him that all nature might stand up and say, 'Here is a man'."

English Literary Club, Latin Club, Dramatic Club, Hi Y, High School Orchestra; Dramatic Club, '27, '29.

Ernest is studious, but not too studious. His grades in his four years in N. B. H. S. are excellent and he deserves much credit for his ability. Whatever he may undertake in life's short journey we wish him the greatest possible success.

"JOHNSON"

LOUISE ELEANOR JONES

"Be true to your word, your work and your friends."

President of Eighth Grade; English Club, '26, '27; Glee Club, '26, '27; Student Council, '27; Dramatic Club, '28; Secretary Drama Guild, '29; "Help Yourself", '29.

Quiet? Well, she isn't a talking machine. Studious? Nothing different. Slangy? Not in the least, though this beginning might leave such an impression. If you leave anything to Eleanor, you can depend on her to do it. That's why she was elected our most dependable girl. She is talented in dramatics as well as art, and we have found her a valuable asset to the class of '29. Here's luck to you,

"ELEANOR"

JAMES FRANKLIN KETCHAM

"Ambition should have been his middle name."

English Club, '26; History Club, '27; Science Club, '28; Student Council, '27, '28; Hi-Y, '28; Class Secretary, '27; Class Treasurer, '28; Class Secretary, '29; Basketball, '28; Monogram, '28, '29; Debating Club, '29.

Who is that handsome boy that can play basketball like a professional? That's "Jimmie" Ketcham. "Jimmie" is a friend in all the athletic games. In his classes he is a student of no mean ability. James is an all 'round good sport and he is willing to make the period bell sound a little early if you are in trouble. Although James has only been with us during our high school days, he has proved himself a very valuable addition. The class of '29 wishes you success.

"JIMMIE"

ELIZABETH AUGUSTA LANCASTER

"Nicknames—how I abhor them."

English Club, '26; Latin Club, '27; Dramatic Club, '28; Basketball, '28, '29; Drama Guild, '29; Treasurer Hi-Y, '29.

Our basket-ball star, Elizabeth is usually a quiet, meek appearing person—but if you want to see her "riled," call her "Gussie!" However, she's a good old sport and a tried and true friend—one whom we all enjoy and wish to keep.

"LIZZIE GUS"

SARAH BRYAN LANE

"Boys, howdy! What town is this?"

Freshman Literary Society, '25; Senior Literary Society, '29;
Home Economics Fashion Show, '26; English Club, '27.

Who is that? Why that's Sarah Lane, one of the best sports in New Bern. Sara's a real entertainer, and if you want to have some fun at your parties just ask Sarah. To look at Sarah's pictures one would think she is serious, but not so you can tell it. She has proved her skill in typing and shorthand. We wish you the best ever as a business woman.

"BEAUTIFUL"

WILLIAM JOSEPH LANSCHKE

*"Life sings through his blood
And puts old cares to rout."*

English Club, '26; History Club, '28; Travel Club, '29;
Football, '27, '28, '29.

Billy is one of our best! He's a good football player and he sure knows how to handle the pigskin. And good-looking? Oh! boy, that hair and those eyes! He likes a certain girl so very much. We wish him lots of good luck in everything, especially love.

"BILLY"

ISABEL LAWRENCE

*"Life is merry, life is gay.
She takes it all in a joking way."*

English Club, '26, '27; Dramatic Club, '28, '29; Student Council, '28.

"Icky" is a good sport, she fits in anywhere. If there's anything exciting happening, Icky sure will be first there. She is full of good sense and good humor, too. She's just a good sport clear through. All these things help to make up our friend,

"ICKY"

RALPH GLEN LOCKEY

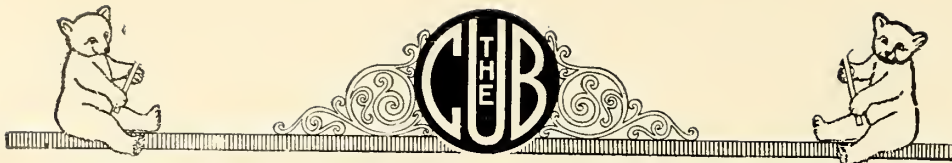

*"All great men are dying,
I don't feel well myself."*

Student Council Vice-President, '28, '29; Science Club, '28;
Drama Guild, '29; Football, '28, '29; Basketball, '28, '29.

Ralph is one of our "shining lights" and a boy that every one admires. His sunny smiles and cheerful disposition have won many friends for him. He is a good sport and a lively companion. He has a leaning towards the fairer sex. We wish him luck in whatever he may try.

"LOCKEY"

NINA BASNIGHT LUPTON

"Any color so long as its Red."

Student Council, '26; Eighth Grade English Club, '26; Latin Club, '27; Dramatic Club, '28, '29; Basketball, '28, '29; Glee Club, '28, '29; Girls Hi-Y, '29; Candy Stand, '29; "Am I Intruding?", '29; Help Yourself, '29; National Honor Society, '29; Assistant Manager Junior Edition Bruin, '28.

Nina's the kind of a girl who will have a good time wherever she is, in school or out. She was our fastest basket-ball player and besides is always ready to take a swim, go for a ride, or play a game of tennis with you. Just a plain, good sport and a true friend is

"NINA"

MARILYN IRENE MADARA

"Two of the fairest stars in all the heavens—her eyes."

Assistant Editor Cub, '29; President Debating Club, '29; Secretary Student Council, '29; Member Judiciary Committee, '29; "Am I Intruding?", '29.

Although she has only been with us one year, when we look at Mary's list of achievements, we often wonder how we got along without her. Whenever you can't find her you just know she's riding, so hang around the main drag awhile and you can't miss her.

"MARY"

GLADYS EVELYN MALLARD

"The most valuable things are often found in small packages."

Glee Club, '28; French Club, '29; "Help Yourself", '29.

That short sentence describes Gladys perfectly. She is small but she is always ready with a smile or a helping hand whenever either is needed. Gladys is blessed with a disposition that everyone envies. She is always smiling and everyone likes to have her around.

"GLADYS"

LEROY MILLER

*There are bricks to build,
There are bricks to throw,
But the best of all bricks
Is the brick we know.*

Football, '26, '27, '28, '29; Baseball, '26, '27, '28, '29; Secretary and Treasurer Debating Club, '29.

Who's that good-looking boy? That's Roy. On the baseball team he excelled as a fielder, and on the football team he took a great many bumps, but with a smile and grit that won. Roy is a "thing" with the ladies 'cause they always fall for his curly hair and blue eyes. Good luck, Roy, we know you'll be a success.

"ROY"

RUTH MAE MILLER

"Wedding bells soon will ring."

Student Council, '28; Dramatic Club, '28; Glee Club, '29;
Drama Guild, '29.

Ruth is a very capable girl. In all activities you will find her there and willing to do her part. When she has a certain idea in view, look out, she's going to win! Is she pretty? Well! I should say so. We never call on Ruth to draw without her showing a thorough willingness to do all she can. Here's to Ruth and art.

"PATSY"

WILLIAM EDWARD MINICH

*"The reason firm, the temperate will,
Endurance, foresight, strength and skill."*

Science Club, '26; Forum, '27; Hi-Y, '28, '29; Travel Club, '29.

History dates, Physic formulas, Billy is the one you're looking for. Always near when needed, willing to help at any time. A bright future is to be looked forward to for

"BILLY"

THOMAS JERKINS MITCHELL, III.

"There ain't no need to hurry."

Basketball, '27, '28, '29; English Club, '26; Hi-Y, '27, '28;
Latin Club, '27; Science Club, '28; Travelers Club, '29;
Student Council, '26, '27.

Who is that pitcher out there? Why that's our Buzz, sure death to the batters and geometry. Buzz can hardly be called a saint even though he hangs around a certain "Church." Good luck to you, Buzz, and keep that o.d dime you owe me until we meet again.

"BUZZ"

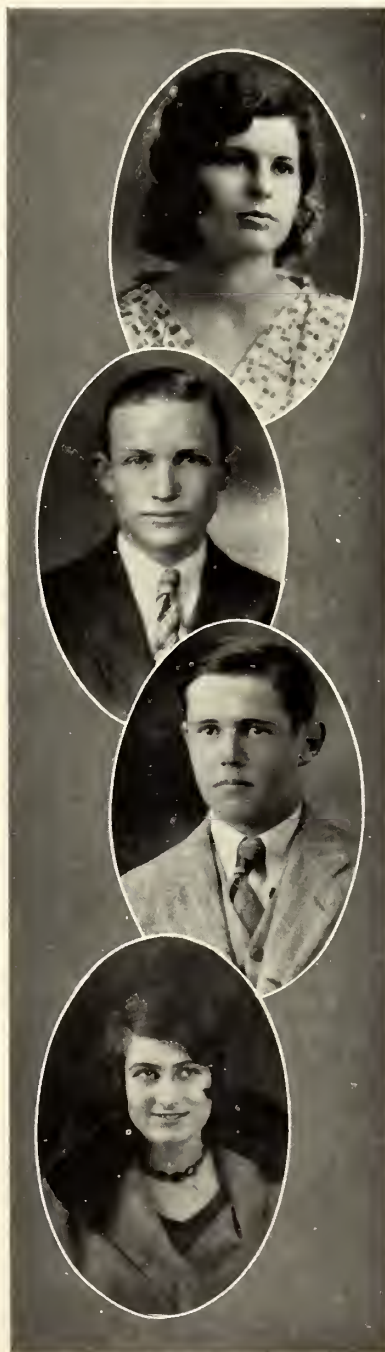

WINIFRED McILWANE PARKER

"To know her is to love her."

English Club, '27; Dramatic Club, '28, '29.

Perhaps some think that Winnie is quiet and demure, but those who know her best will say that never has there been a more faithful or loving friend. Not too studious, not too quiet, she's just right. Although Winnie lives far out in De-Graffenreid Park, she will always remain close to our hearts.

"WINNIE"

LAWRENCE PATTEN

*"As an actor confess'd without rival to shine:
Acts as wit, if not first, in the very first line."*

Jazz and Minuet, '28; Dramatic Club, '28; State Dramatic Contest, '28; "Am I Intruding?", '29; "Help Yourself", '29; Student Council, '29; President Drama Guild, '29; Vice President Class, '29; President Hi-Y Club, '29; Editor Bruin, '29; National Honor Society, '29.

How did New Bern High School get along before Lawrence came? If there is a player needed he is always right there. How did The Bruin live without him, and how did the Drama Guild get along before he came? Although we've only had him a year and a half to get acquainted, everyone likes him a lot and only wish he might have been with us longer.

"PATTEN"

LULA JESSIE POTTER

*"She learns to live and lives to learn.
Taking play and lessons in their turn."*

French Club, '28, '29.

Lula, although she has only been with us two years, has won many friends. She is jolly and capable of the many tasks she undertakes. Lula is a true friend and is always ready to help others.

"LULA"

SALLIE MAE RHODES

"Oftimes in pleasure, oftimes in sadness, but most times in love."

English Club, '26, '27; Glee Club, '28; Dramatic Club, '28, '29; Jazz and Minuet, '28.

Sallie has charmed a great many young hearts 'round town. If that Buick could talk, we bet it could tell some tales. Sallie has a wee little giggle that we all recognize as soon as we hear it. Keep that smile, Sallie, and remember it will go a long, long way.

"SALLIE"

EARL HANSON PETERSON

"Who's that happy warrior?"

English Club, '26; Student Council, '26; Dramatic Club, '28, '29; Bruin Staff, '28, '29.

Who is that cute boy coming? Oh, that is Earl Peterson, the shiek of the Senior class. Earl is not only that but he has many other good qualities. He is a boy we cannot help liking and one that all of us admire. Here's wishing him success and happiness which we feel confident he will always have.

"EARL"

JOSEPH RAMON SALEM

"He has few equals and no superiors."

Class Secretary and Treasurer, '26; Vice-President Class, '27; Treasurer, '28; Secretary Hi-Y, '29; Assistant Editor Bruin, '29; Manager Bruin, '28, '29.

Joe is one of the most outstanding boys that ever graduated from our high school. A foreigner by birth, he came into our school and made better grades and showed a better spirit of loyalty and pride for his adopted country than many of his native born classmates. He has been honored as an officer in practically every school club he has been a member of, and is a member of the National Honor Society. Don't worry about Joe, he'll make his mark.

"JOE"

CHARLES WILLIAM SEIFERT

"An honest man's the noblest work of God."

Class Secretary, '26; Vice-President of 8A8; Member Student Council, '26, '27, '29; Cub Football, '27; High School Football, '28; Baseball, '29; National Honor Society, '29; President Judicial Committee, '29; Hi-Y, '28; Vice-President Hi-Y, '29; English Club, '26; Critic Latin Club, '27; Dramatic Club, '28; Treasurer Dramatic Club, '29; "Am I Intruding?", '29; Help Yourself, '29.

Charles is our idea of an all 'round good fellow. He is a star pupil, a good sport and a real friend. Also he's a most delightful person to argue with, because it's impossible to get mad with him. Remember now, we expect to see you in command of a fleet of ships in the next war.

"SEIFERT"

KATIE BELL SMITH

*"A perfect woman, nobly planned
To warn, to comfort and command."*

English Club, '26; Latin Club, '27; Student Council, '28; French Club, '29.

Katie has never let her studies interfere with her social life, yet we will be willing to bet that few book worms have gotten more out of high school life than Katie has. She works hard on her lessons, but she takes life easily and has a smile for every one she meets.

"KATY"

LEO DUVAL SMITH

*"My mind lets go a thousand things
Like dates of wars and deaths of kings."*

Football, '29; Baseball, '28; Basketball, '29; "Y" Junior Basketball, '28; Dramatic Club, '29; Science Club, '27, '28.

His cheerful disposition, his ready wit, and, let's not forget his mischievousness, adds spice to Leo's already attractive personality. There's one boy we know we can depend on—one who is willing to give N. B. H. S. his services without a "bite and a growl."

"SUNKISS" better known as "RED"

ROSALIE SMITH

*"Life's a jest and all things show it.
I thought so once, and now I know it."*

English Club, '26; Latin Club, '27; Dramatic Club, '28, '29;
Glee Club, '28, '29; Assistant Pianist, '28; Pianist, '29.

"Hoosit" coming this way? Why that's Rosalie, our talented pianist. Can she play? Whoopee! I'll say she can, and how! Rosalie has been with us through the years and is known for her good disposition. She is a friend to every one and always willing to help. Here's lots of luck to our own,

"ROSIE"

WALLACE ALVIN SMITH

"Better not be at all, than not be noble."

English Club, '26; History Club, '27; Debating Club, '28;
Football, '28.

Good natured, easy going, "Snookie." Always happy and light hearted, always willing to help his fellow man. May the best of luck and success always attend.

"SNOOKIE"

MILDRED ANN STALLINGS

"Look for the good, let the bad take care of itself."

Student Council, '25; Orchestra, '26, '27, '28, '29; English Club, '26; Glee Club, '28, '29; French Club Reporter for Bruin, '29; Marshal, '29.

If it's a true and dependable girl you're looking for, seek Mildred. She is always helping someone along in life. Mildred has won a place in our hearts by kindness towards all and malice toward none. Why seek the bad when there is a little good in everyone? Success, health, and happiness is what we're wishing you,

ROBERT LEE STALLINGS

*"He seen his duty, a dead sure thing,
And went for it thar and then."*

Student Council, Fall Term, '26; History Club, '27; Science Club, '28; Debating Club, '29; Business Manager of Baseball, '28; Business Manager of Football, '29; Treasurer of Hi-Y, '28; President of Senior Class, '29; Assistant Editor of Bruin, '28.

If the Senior class wants a president who can give it a smooth and successful year; if the football, basket-ball, and baseball teams want a manager to bring them a paying season; if the producers of plays want a real business man with ideas which increase their box receipts, a fellow who can manage these things successfully and still maintain his popularity among those with whom and for whom he works—page Robert Stallings!

"BOB"

KATHRYN DUDLEY SUTER

"A smile for all, a greeting glad, a lovable, jolly way she had."

English Club, '26; Glee Club, '28, '29; Basketball, '27; Dramatic Club, '28; Vice-President French Club, '29; Senior Trio, '29; Girls' Hi-Y Club, '29.

Here's to Dud—laughing and joking every day. She is good-looking, attractive, and one of the most talented girls in our class. Of course you know she sings—and how! We predict a successful grand opera career for you, Dud. You have won a place in our hearts and we'll never forget you and the good times we've had on your porch.

"DUD"

GRACE DUVAL SWINSON

"If worry were the only cause of death, then would I live forever."

English Club, '26; History Club, '27; Dramatic Club, '28, '29; Student Council, '27; Bruin, '28, '29; Minstrel, '26; "Old Gooseberry", '27.

Who is that striking looking girl? It's Grace! She helps in all school activities and her witty remarks have brightened many dull days. Her vocabulary is enormous and she is "always" talking. She loves her pranks and mischievous play—she is a good sport in every way. The class of '29 is not likely to forget

"GRACE"

BESSIE MAE TAYLOR

*"Here's to Bessie, happy and gay,
With never a care, she can't giggle away."*

The Travel Club, '29.

Although Bessie is one of the smallest members of the Senior class her merry laugh can be heard all through the corridors. If you are blue or need a friend, just call on Bessie Mae, you will always find her ready to help you. Her enthusiasm and cheerful disposition have made her a welcome addition to the Senior class.

LINA CORINNE TAYLOR

"To know her is to love her."

English Club, '26, '27; Dramatic Club, '28; Student Council, '27, '29; Glee Club, '28; Drama Guild, '29.

You say you want a car to advertise a play or some one to entertain out of town visitors? Well, just ask Connie, she'll be delighted to help you—Corinne the beautiful, the unselfish, always ready to do all she can to help anyone. She was able to be one of the most popular girls in her class and still keep up on her studies. And she is talented, too. Ask anyone and they will tell you she is a truly lovable girl.

She stands in with the faculty, she's a favorite with the pupils, why? Honor student—the best sport ever was, a demon on the basket-ball court, in plays she has acted everything from an old woman to a modern flapper. If we need some one to do something or manage something we get Amy, for we know she is always ready and willing to help.

MARTHA ELIZABETH WILLIAMS

"Men, men, how I adore them!!"

Student Council, '26, '27; Science Club, '28; Debating Club, '29.

Who's that riding down the street, now in a Ford, now in a Chrysler? That's Martha, and you never see her walking. Whenever you hear two girls talking about boys you just know one is Martha. She is a tall, good-looking blond, and how! We all like Martha and we wish her success.

High Lights in The History of The Class of 1929

When a man falls in love, he, somehow, imagines that his case is just a little different from anyone else's love affair. Class histories, after all, are very much alike, yet we are like the man in love, we believe our history is just a little different.

In the year 1926 one hundred and five freshmen entered New Bern High School. Of course we were green, and of course we were frightened, and of course our elders, including the teachers, gave us that horrid "once over" which says "poor little dears."

We, poor unsophisticated freshmen, were stupid enough to think that perhaps we might be able to get into the Latin Club, so we knocked at the door of this club only to be turned away. We then discovered that Latin is a dead language and then we rejoiced at our lucky escape from this sepulchre filled with dead bones.

In September 1926, we became sophomores. We felt ourselves swelling. We could find nothing that would cure this swelling, so we meekly accepted our newly attained size. We expanded in such proportions that we soon found ourselves in plays, athletics and clubs of various kinds.

When the year 1927 rolled around we took an inventory of ourselves and we discovered that our sophomore swelling was going down. All of a sudden we found that we were becoming an important group.

We soon ran up the "Jolly Roger" and announced to the school that we were going to give the Seniors a Pirates' Feast. We drew our daggers on the Seniors and presented each Senior with a treasure chest.

The Junior edition of The Bruin stirred the world. Teachers informed us that we were entirely too modest to realize just how great we really were.

The autumn of 1928 found us Seniors.

The Senior play, "Am I Intruding?" was a howling success. During the whole performance the people in the audience were now on their feet, now on pins.

Soon after the Senior play we heard the cruel whisper that a ban had been put on the Annual. No one but Mr. Shields will ever know how we wept and plead for an Annual.

The National Honor Society was organized in our school. The seven wonders of the Senior class were elected to membership in this society.

One fine evening the Juniors introduced us into Holland. They served us to a Dutch banquet. They did not fail to get us in "Dutch", either.

Some foolish Senior started to wear socks to school and after that childish trick Children's Day lost its charm and we gave up the idea of having such a day.

A thousand things have happened during our course in high school, but space and tact forbid another word.

HENRY SMITH'S SCRAP BOOK

OR

THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF MY MOST FAMOUS CLASS

By PROFESSOR H. B. SMITH.

Carpenter-Ketcham Publishing Co.

New Church, N. C.—1959.

From Newspaper Clippings and Scrapbook:

I take my pen in hand to give in these pages a brief survey of the accomplishments of my most famous class, the class of '29.

1950—Opens a new era in the history of the United States, when James Cason, Bill Wheeler, Francis Ferebee, Robert Stallings, Grace Swinson and Mamie Wade assumed high seats in the American Government.

Immediately upon the assumption of its duties the Special Divorce Court, presided over by Judge Evelyn Hodges, granted a divorce with forty dollars per week alimony to Miss Sarah Julia Foscue from her former husband, Mr. Earl Harper, whom she said she had married only on account of admiring his height. This divorce comes as a distinct shock to society in which both members are prominently known.

Miss Rosalie Smith, whose engagement to Mr. William Minich, star reporter for The Morning New Bernian, New Bern, N. C., has recently been announced, arrived in the city today. Miss Smith stated that she left her kindergarten in Hollywood in charge of Misses Winnie Parker and Helen Jackson, formerly of this city. After the wedding, which will be performed by Rev. Thomas Mitchell and witnessed by his wife, formerly Miss Ann Church, the couple will leave by Norfolk and Southern Limited for parts unknown.

The City Courts today had a heavy docket. Foremost among the cases tried was that of Lancaster vs. Biddle. Miss Lancaster, the plaintiff, brings suit against Miss Mildred Biddle for selling gasoline two cents under-rate of regular price. Both young women are seasoned filling station keepers and it is not the first time that such differences have arisen between them. Lawyers for defense were: Ralph Lockey and Katie Bell Smith. Those for the plaintiff: Ernest Johnson and William Harris.

Word has just been received here that the Gibbs-Brandt Theatrical Co. of New York will broadcast Tuesday evening by the Visr-radio, recently invented by Mr. Thomas Davis. A feature of this programme will be a solo by Miss Elizabeth Duffy, noted American singer and actress. Miss Duffy's performance will be followed by a Spanish toe dance (duet) by Misses Mary Madara and Mildred Hamilton. We of the old home town wait to see and hear these remarkable features with keenest anticipation.

Mr. Charles Seifert, noted African explorer, leaves today, accompanied by his secretary, Bill Lanche, for the jungles of South Africa. Mr. Seifert announced that his purpose is to capture two tigers (alive) for the Heritage-Hancock Ten-Ring Circus.

Miss Ruth Anderson left today for France, where she will resume her duties as a French teacher in one of the Parisian schools. Miss Anderson was accompanied by Miss Ruby Lee Hall who will study vocal under Prof. Akuh Trojuskki (alias) "Red" Smith, in Paris.

Miss Nina Lupton, sales manager for Coplon's Department store, leaves tonight to select new line of goods for the Fall Sale. Miss Lupton states that the sale, on her return, will open with a style show featuring two manikins hired from a fashionable New York shop. Both manikins were formerly from New Bern and the city will be glad to welcome Miss Elsie Cook and Miss Gladys Mallard, two of the most beautiful young ladies in the world as its daughters.

News Briefs:

Miss Isabel Lawrence, Methodist missionary, has recently been transferred from Kin Chow, China, to Bolivia (South America). Miss Lawrence has long awaited a change of location and since the South American climate will aid her in keeping "that school-girl complexion," she accepts her new assignment with much pleasure.

Miss Amy Williams, noted American author and scientist, having recently published a ten-volume set of encyclopedias on "Where All Pens Go," has now started a research on the topic, "Geniuses Are All Unbalanced," suggested to her by Judge Hodges. This was a popular theory of Judge Hodges, formulated early in her high school days, and Miss Williams, who showed great interest in it during those years, recently declared that she would prove the question.

Miss Mary Hughes, of Wilmington, Delaware, in connection with National Welfare Work, arrived in the city today to arrange for a "Charity Ball," the benefit of which is to go to the City Aid Fund. Miss Hughes has been in government employment since her graduation from Columbia University and has made excellent progress. We hope that all people will give her their cooperation and add another success to her list.

Miss Bessie May Taylor, professor of foreign languages in New Bern High School, left today to spend the week-end with friends in Goldsboro.

Lawrence Patten, noted American actor, leaves today for England, where he will be presented at Court.

Joseph Salem, fencing professor at University of Maryland, gives exhibition of his fencing abilities to a large audience at the high school building recently designed by James Guthrie, this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Miss Corinne Taylor, manager of the New Bern Coca-Cola Bottling

Plants, and her secretary, Miss Mildred Stallings, leave tonight to attend a joint bottling meeting at Pittsburgh.

Miss Dudley Suter and Miss Annie Boyd, whose airplane performances are given under the name of "The AB's," will prove their endurance by remaining 1,400 miles up for four hours.

Note—By Professor Smith:

It will be shown by the above references to my scrapbook that this has become one of the most famous of all classes ever graduated from that grand old edifice, so dear to the hearts of its pupils, "The Moses Griffin."

Among the members of this class there may be found judges, lawyers, congressmen, singers, welfare workers, scientists, authors, ministers, and many others, all ranking among the foremost people of the day! Few have chosen dishonorable tasks to perform and it is my pleasure to add that I am not in the least disappointed with them. They have done honor and credit to those who guided and directed their early training and we are proud of them!

And to add another hint, which comes to me from influential citizens and certain party leaders, the distinction of the class of '29 has not quite yet reached its greatest height. For the highest honor and distinction that this nation offers its sons and daughters has not yet been attained, namely, the president, and the supreme honor of being first lady of the land. However, from this hint, I gathered that even the pinnacle of fame is not far off since the Democrats have decided to nominate the Honorable Frank Henderson as their next candidate. Henderson undoubtedly deserves this honor for even in high school he was noted for his dictatorial methods and actions. The first lady of the land, his wife, formerly Miss Eleanor Jones, can not be excelled by anyone in talents, breeding or culture. Therefore, with the influence of his many friends and old classmates aiding and abetting him it is likely that when the proper time comes, Henderson will rise to this supreme duty.

Now, having displayed to you its accomplishments in this poor and scattered way, I would have you watch for the future advances of this excellent class, the grand old Class of '29.

ADVENTURE

*A trodden road has led us here,
Upwinding o'er the hill;
The looming pines
Of uncurved lines
As guardsmen staunch, are still.*

*A narrow, rugged way was this
For young unused feet,
But discipline
Wrought strength within
To gain the stony deep.*

*These golden reins that led our steps,
We loosen tenderly.
In this bright hour
Of conscious power
We've sought so earnestly.*

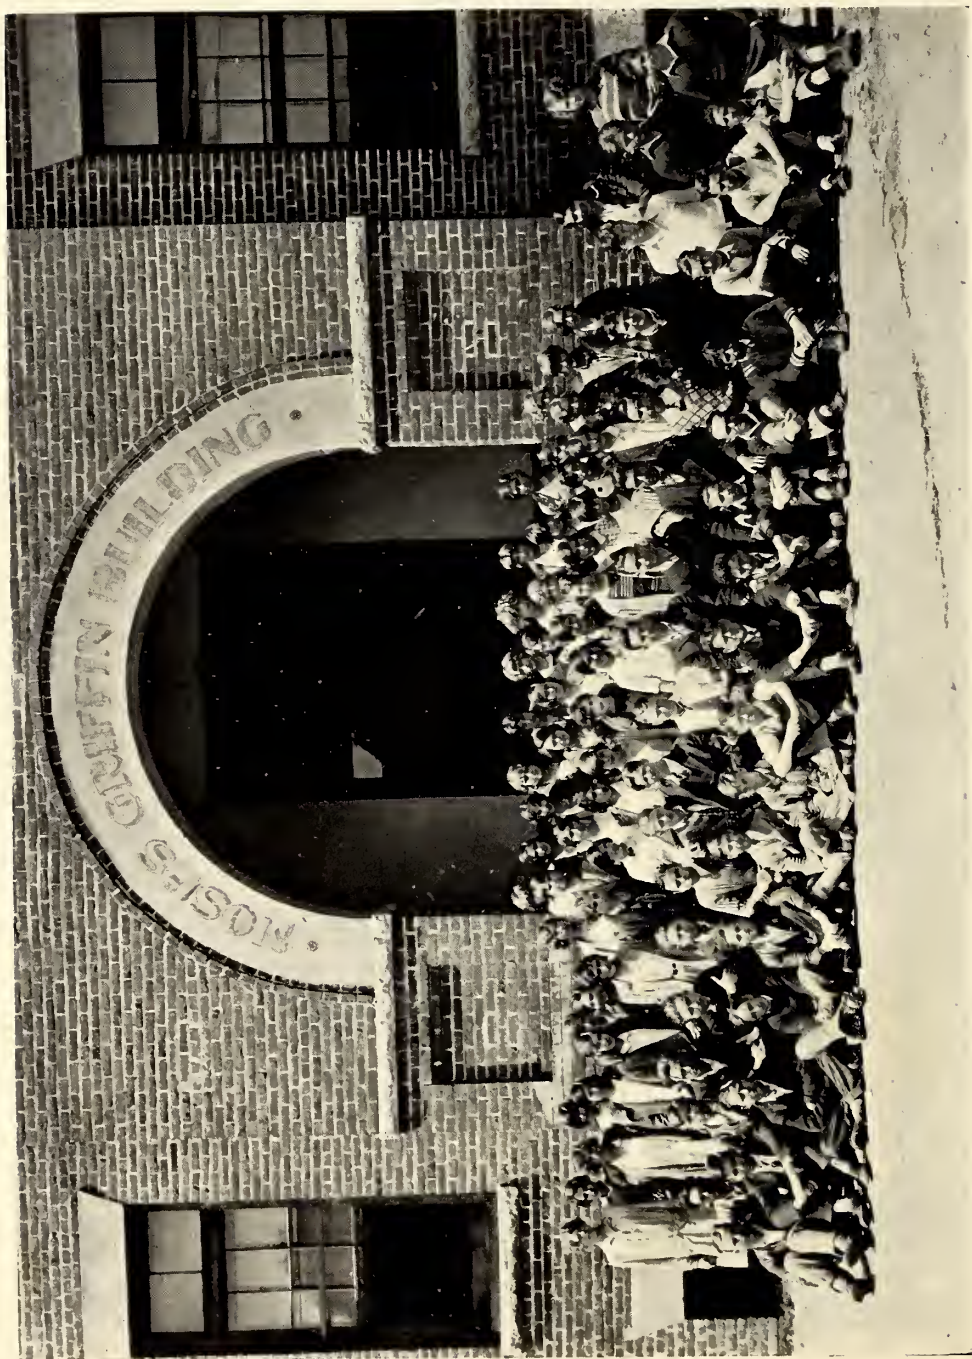

*In roseate dawn of waking life,
From this first peak we see
New ramparts bare—
Forbidding—where Dwells opportunity.*

*Rising above those towering hills
We face the sun of Truth.
Its light strikes deep
Where evils sleep,
Enlightening doubting youth.*

*In silence, pausing, hand in hand,
Heads lifted to the sky,
We consecrate—
We dedicate—
These powers which in us lie.*

*Fear daunts us not of worldly strife,
Strong-armed with courage we,
With Truth and Love
And Loyalty, move
To shape our destiny!*

School No More

*No matter what our age or grade,
No matter how we rate;
There's one thing we all know we'll hear,
Just as sure as fate.
Every morning, every evening,
Everyday's recess;
Every girl and every boy,
Every one, 'il 'fess,
Will hear the bell that calls us all
Into work or out to play;
Will hear the bell that in the fall
Seems to us to try to say,
"School to-day, school to-day."
Will hear the bell that in the spring
We all understand to ring
"School no more, school no more."*

—AMY WILLIAMS.

A Dream

*Upon my mind for words or rhyme
I've made a raid,
And I'll believe, till end of time,
That poets are born—not made.*

*I had a dream last night;
A wondrous dream to me,
All of the books took flight
For a journey across the sea.*

*The boat came into dock
And each of them did flee,
Poor me—it was an awful shock;
But they heard the bell, you see.*

*All ran, English and History too,
For nothing did they wait,
For they knew 'twould never do
To be a minute late.*

(Get up Mildred, there's the school bell.)

—MILDRED BIDDLE.
